Dated: 27.03.2023

NOTIFICATION

The Executive Council vide EC Resolution No. 63 (63-29) dated 03.02.2023 has approved the composition of the University Song (Kulgeet), as part of the yearlong Commemorative Centenary Celebrations of the University of Delhi, which is appended herewith.

The following protocol of rendition of the University Song (Kulgeet) should be observed by all concerned:

- The University Song (Kulgeet) should be sung in all the Official programmes/events of the University, its Faculties, Departments, Centres, Hostels, Colleges and Institutes at the beginning of such programmes/events.
- All the attendees of the programme/event shall be required to stand up, except the Persons with Benchmark Disability, while the University Song (Kulgeet) is performed either live or recorded version, as the case may be.
- The University Song (Kulgeet) is of two minutes six seconds duration containing three paragraphs. The University Song (Kulgeet) should be performed for its complete duration without any editing or shortening of its length or change of tune.
- The University Song (Kulgeet) should be performed without any background chorus either by one artist or in duet.
- Requirement of musical instruments is not essential for performance of the University Song (Kulgeet). It can be sung without any background instrumental music.
- Every care and attention shall be accorded to ensure that the University Song (Kulgeet) is performed with the highest respect and devotion towards the University of Delhi.
- Any contravention to the above provisions shall attract disciplinary action, as appropriate.

All concerned are required to follow the protocol mentioned above for performance of the University Song (Kulgeet) accordingly.
